ABOUT US

At Healthy Families ND we know you want to be a parent who provides a safe and healthy life for your child. It helps to have someone who will listen to your unique story and support you.

The problem is that when life gets hard, every day feels like a fork in the road moment which makes you feel frustrated or overwhelmed.

We believe that every parenting experience is unique and each family deserves their own plan. This is why we help you create a plan, based on your story to move your forward on your parenting journey.

At Healthy Families ND, we meet you where you are, with visits taking place in your home, virtually or even at a park.

Contact us today to schedule time to connect with one of our staff.
